    - Option 2: February 1, 2027 – January 31, 2028 (12 months, 18 credits; priority consideration)

  ※ Priority will be given to applicants who are willing to commit to the full-year internship (12 months).

- Working Hours: Monday to Friday, on a rotating schedule. Applicants must be available for evening teaching assignments until 9:30 p.m.

2. Responsibilities

1. Provide one-on-one English tutoring and learning support for athletes.
2. Assist English instructors with classroom activities, teaching materials, and student learning records.
3. Help produce teaching-related videos and assist with attendance records and course evaluations.
4. Support athletes in developing their English communication skills for international sporting events.

3. Qualifications

- Current Wenzao students, with priority given to third-year undergraduate and fourth-year junior college students. Graduating students may also apply.
- Good spoken English and communication skills.
- For international students, basic Mandarin Chinese communication skills are preferred, to facilitate communication with Taiwanese athletes and staff. Foreign applicants must hold a valid work permit and meet the applicable requirements for working and interning in Taiwan.
- Enthusiasm for English teaching and interacting with others; previous teaching experience is an advantage.
- Interest in sports, a responsible attitude, patience, and teamwork skills.
- A conduct grade of at least 80 and an academic average of at least 70.

4. Allowances and Benefits

- One-on-one English tutoring: NT$360 per hour
- Group/classroom tutoring: NT$400 per hour
- Allowances are calculated based on actual hours worked.
